Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThe first collection of the Tales from Kalwyn: four short stories that focus on events affecting very different people as they face the struggles of life in Kalwyn. Whether trying to better themselves, to make a living with their skills or simply trying to survive, their lives are rarely straightforward and often dangerous.THE LAST OF THE FIRST - After offering shelter to an injured young woman, a farmer becomes increasingly involved in a potentially devastating conflict affecting his homeland. His stubborn determination and pride threaten his life, but also afford him a chance to elevate his people higher than they've ever been.THE TRICK TO MAGIC - Hired by a wealthy mother to teach her son the fundamentals of magic, a young wizard instead finds himself forming a bond with her eldest daughter. Torn between his duties to his employer and his personal feelings, he must decide where his loyalties truly lie.

QUICK FINGERS - A teenaged thief, having repeatedly displayed her ability as a pickpocket, is entrusted with stealing an expensive artefact. Struggling with the morality of her lifestyle but with few other options, she faces an impossible decision that will inevitably hurt somebody, most likely herself.

THE TALL AND SHORT OF IT - When an isolated town suffers repeated attacks by raiders, they desperately hire a pair of mercenaries to protect them. With little regard for their own lives, but less for their enemies, they spark a confrontation that threatens the lives of themselves and their employers.
